PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that One State Street LLC, through its counsel Garvey McNeil & Associates S.C. and Ropes & Gray LLP, will move the Court for an order permitting it to file its memorandum of law in excess of ten pages in reply to the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance's ("OCI") and Ambac Assurance Corporation's ("Ambac") Response briefs in opposition to One State Street LLC's and other Movant's motions to dissolve or modify the Temporary Injunction issued in this case.

The motion will be heard at the hearing currently scheduled at the Lafayette County Courthouse on September 13, 2010, at 1:30 pm, or at an alternative time, date, and place set by the court.

GROUNDS for this motion are as follows, and are set forth in the accompanying Affidavit of Anne Bensky:

1. One State Street LLC is the landlord for the world headquarters of Ambac, located in New York City. Ambac and its parent company, Ambac Financial Group, are parties to the lease ("Headquarters Lease"). (See One State Street brief 6/22/10 at p. 1.) The Headquarters lease was transferred into a Segregated Account set up by the OCI and Ambac. (See Verified Petition at p. 5, Tab 1. at p. 2.)
2. Pursuant to the OCI's Verified Petition for Order of Rehabilitation of the Segregated Account, this Court granted to the OCI a temporary injunction ("TRO"), which, among other things, enjoined policy, asset, contract and liability holders from seeking relief in courts or collecting on claims. The Court's March 24, 2010 order invited interested parties to move the Court for dissolution or modification of the TRO. On June 22, 2010, One State Street LLC filed a timely motion and memorandum of law to dissolve or modify the TRO as to One State Street, LLC. At this time and at times previous, many other interested parties filed similar motions.
3. On or about August 17, 2010, the OCI and Ambac separately responded to One State Street, LLC's motion and the motions filed by the other movants in this case. Both OCI and Ambac filed briefs consolidating issues common to the movants in addition to responding to One State Street's specific issues. OCI moved to file its brief in excess of the 40 page limit to respond to arguments raised by multiple parties. One State Street did not and does not object to this motion.

4. For simplicity sake, One State Street similarly responded to both OCI's and Ambac's arguments in one consolidated brief, which runs 18 pages, two pages less than the page limit had One State Street responded separately to OCI and Ambac.
5. The factual and legal issues in this matter are complicated and the potential monetary loss to One State Street as a result of the TRO, according to OCI and Ambac, is near $100 million dollars. One State Street limited its reply to the extent possible given the complexity and high stakes of the case.

WHEREFORE:

One State Street LLC respectfully requests this Court consider its reply brief in its entirety and execute and order granting One State Street leave to file its reply brief in excess of ten pages.

Submitted this 2nd day of September, 2010.
